

Children's Hospital Paediatric Update 2017

Date - September 27, 2017 from 7:30am-5:00pm Venue - Four Points by Sheraton, London

Conference Topics

- KEYNOTE: High Tech in a Low-Tech World: Providing culturally sensitive healthcare to Amish and Mennonite communities
- Diagnosing Hypertension in Children: Clinical Implications and Practical Tips
- Child Maltreatment: It just takes one
- 13 reasons why not: Why self-harm is not a solution and what to do about it
- Mind the Gap: Youth and Disconnection in the Age of (Un)Social Media
- Maternal Narcotic Addiction: Tragedy and Opportunity
- "What Am I Missing?" Approach to Failure to Thrive: A Community Perspective
- Communication in Paediatrics: More than just talking.
- The technology-dependent child: the what, the where and the how of medical devices
- When the Heart Calls: Your guide to common murmurs and knowing when to refer
- Office management of Epilepsy; The Five Ws of Choosing Wisely
- To Shunt or Not to Shunt....That is the Question: Hydrocephalus & CSF Diversions Options in Children
- Is It Broken or Is it just Fractured? Paediatric Orthopaedic Injuries
- A major change in food allergy prevention: When should infants receive peanut, egg, milk

Paediatric Brain Teasers - Audience Interactive Sessions - Three Interesting Cases

Registration is now open:

<https://conference.has.uwo.ca/Register/default.aspx?code=C000196>

Open to:

General Academic Paediatricians, Community Paediatricians, Family Medicine Physicians, Nurses, Nurse Practitioners, and Allied Health Professionals, Paediatric and Family Medicine Residents, Medical students interested in pursuing paediatric medicine

For more information contact: Vanessa Jones

Vanessa.Jones@lhsc.on.ca, 519-685-8500 X 77566 or Samantha Brocksom Samantha.Brocksom@LHSC.on.ca 519-685-8500 X 58048

